COSATU Strike 5 October 2011

It is unclear to what extent COSATU's call for a general strike by members of its affiliated unions tomorrow (5th October) will be supported.

Safcor Panalpina has contingency arrangements in place to deal with possible disruptions in its own operations. We have no influence on the operations of the many suppliers and service providers with whom we interact on behalf of our clients and may be constrained by their inability to provide full service to us.

Should you require further information, kindly contact your nearest Safcor Panalpina office.
