

Safcor Panalpina's bulletin to our valued partners

If you are not able to read this article please click here

23 April 2010

Durban Container Delays

Strong winds and computer system failures at Durban over the past few days have delayed container working at the port. Vehicles collecting containers from the terminal are currently waiting several hours for admission which is further delaying deliveries.

Although the winds have dropped, extremely rough seas are being experienced along the Eastern Cape and KwaZulu-Natal coasts. Together with next Tuesday's public holiday these factors may result in the backlog persisting for several days.

To remove your name from our mailing list, please click here

Disclaimer:

This communication is published for general information and is not intended as professional advice of any kind. While every reasonable care has been taken to ensure the integrity and accuracy of the information contained herein, no liability or responsibility is accepted by Safcor Panalpina or its employees for any damage or loss of any nature whatsoever resulting from the use or reliance upon this information.