

Safcor Panalpina's bulletin to our valued partners

If you are not able to read this article please click here

20 August 2010

Durban Container Terminal

Durban Container Terminal was wind bound again for much of the day yesterday (19th August). Although landside operations continued normally, the terminal is still very congested and the queue of vessels awaiting berths at Durban is growing. Five ships were reported to be in the outer anchorage early this morning. Clients should expect late discharge and delivery of containers in the coming days.

To remove your name from our mailing list, please click here

Disclaimer:

This communication is published for general information and is not intended as professional advice of any kind. While every reasonable care has been taken to ensure the integrity and accuracy of the information contained herein, no liability or responsibility is accepted by Safcor Panalpina or its employees for any damage or loss of any nature whatsoever resulting from the use or reliance upon this information.