Far East Seafreight Rates Increases

Mediterranean Shipping Company (MSC) has given notice of a general rate increase on all containers carried on its vessels between ports in the Far East and ports in the Indian Ocean, East Africa, Mozambique and South Africa.

The increase is US $250/TEU. It will be applied to all shipments for which bills of lading are issued on or after 15th August.

Other major carriers operating in this trade have already announced similar rate increases.
