SARS proposes rule changes for DA 185

SARS (Customs) has published for comment proposed changes to the form DA 185 as well as to the rules governing its use. This form is used for registering clients with SARS and amending registered details.

The changes to the form include a requirement that the person signing it provide their own personal banking information to the authorities.

The proposed rule change will entitle SARS to refuse to handle transactions for clients who fail to formally amend their registration details as circumstances change.

The closing date for public comment is 14th December. Comments may be emailed to: sauthar@sars.gov.za.
