

Safcor Panalpina's bulletin to our valued partners3 March 2011Safcor Panalpina scoops yet another diamond award

Safcor Panalpina has once again achieved the diamond award in the latest PMR survey on freight forwarders. The company achieved the highest rating amongst 150 respondents, which consisted of logistics, operations and warehouse professionals from a number of leading companies.

The themes evaluated included: service excellence, comprehensiveness of solution offering and value for money. This independent survey is conducted to set industry benchmarks and acknowledge employee contribution.

Managing Director of Safcor Panalpina, James Reddy commented: "We are delighted with the result of yet another Diamond award. This is our third diamond award in four years and shows our continued commitment to offering our clients the best possible solutions and service in a very competitive industry. My thanks go to the entire Safcor Panalpina Team who have worked hard and were fully committed to achieve this result. I look forward to our developing and strengthening our business further to satisfy the expectations of all stakeholders."
