Yemen Embargoes: Export Operations Manager

Yemen Embargoes

Qantas Airways has joined those countries and carriers that have placed an embargo on cargo originating from or transiting through Yemen following last week's discovery of parcel bombs on US-bound flights.

In addition clients are asked to note that all cargo moving on Qantas flights now has to be shipped against a written declaration confirming that no part of the cargo has originated in or transited through any point in Yemen at any time. Cargo not compliant with this requirement will not be carried by the airline.
